

Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training Fall Dates 2017 Registration Form

The Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training (ASIST) is a two-day workshop designed to provide practical help for individuals seeking to prevent the immediate risk of suicide. This intensive, interactive and practice-dominated course designed to help individuals recognize the risk of suicide, and learn how to intervene to prevent the risk of suicidal thoughts from becoming suicidal behaviors. Suitable for all persons in positions of trust: health professionals, social service workers, teachers, counselors, youth workers, police and correctional staff, and community volunteers. Prepared caregivers can help prevent suicide. Includes a Suicide Intervention Handbook and a certificate.

Participants will be able to:

- Identify persons at risk
- Reach out to offer support
- Estimate the risk of suicide
- Utilize a model of suicide intervention
- Connect persons with community supports

Workshop Participants may include:

- People concerned about family and friends
- Counsellors, teachers and ministers
- Workers in health or justice, including police, probation
- Community volunteers
- Emergency service workers
- Mental health practitioners

Facilitators trained by Living Works provide the ASIST workshop.

All participants who successfully complete the entire two-day workshop will receive a certificate.

Cancellation Policy

Workshop Cancellation Policy: The Gatehouse reserves the right to cancel or postpone workshops due to under-enrollment, instructor illness or inclement weather. If a workshop is cancelled, you may transfer to another workshop or receive a full refund.

Refunds will only be provided in the event a workshop has been cancelled by The Gatehouse. If your plans change after you have registered you may:

1. Designate a substitute to attend in your place, at no extra cost. Please notify us of the name of the person attending as soon as possible prior to the workshop date for which you registered. This will allow us to correct our records and minimize confusion at check-in.
2. Transfer to another workshop, provided that you notify us by fax or email at least 3 business days prior to the training date for which you have registered. A $25 service fee will apply and is payable at the time of the transfer request. We will not consider requests to transfer less than 3 business days prior to a workshop date. If you fail to attend your scheduled workshop without required notification, as outlined above, your fee will be forfeited.
3. Timekeeping/Punctuality It is very important that our instructors start workshops on time. Thus, instructors are free to close admittance to workshops 30 minutes after starting. Late arrivals may not be admitted and may not be entitled to certification.

By signing below I have reviewed and agree to all terms and conditions as outlined above.
